The Competent, Ethical and Compassionate Physician

DALLAS, TX

A CME Program accredited by the PMAC in the occasion of the 27th Reunion and National Convention of the UERMMMC Medical Alumni Association of America, Inc
Trinity Ballroom, Marriott Legacy, Plano, Texas
July 17- 18, 2015
Course Description: The program consists of three parts representing the characters of a good physician that the UERMMMC College of Medicine cultivates in its graduates presented in a fast moving symposium format. The first deals with topics in core clinical competencies which have been the alumni association’s major emphasis for many years. The second reviews the moral principles of medical ethics and their application in today’s practice. The third explores voluntary medical service and the legal framework that protects it. An syllabus accessible through www.uermafusa.org will be available to enhance the participants’ learning experience.

Learning Objectives: 1) To learn and understand new trends in general medical knowledge and practice; 2) To reaffirm ethical values that distinguish the medical profession; 3) To be able to do an effective and satisfying charitable work as a physician.

Target Audience: Physicians, physician assistants, clinical nurse practitioners and nurses.

Accreditation: Through the Philippine Medical Association in Chicago, this program qualifies for an hour-for-hour Category 1 Credit towards the AMA Physician Recognition Award up to a maximum of 9 hours.

Disclosure of Financial Interest: None of the speakers have disclosed any financial interests in the topics to be presented.
